BEAT UTAH

Cremation Bonfire Set As Game Spirit Boost

HOMICIDE WILL be committed Thursday night on the campus of Brigham Young University, starting at 9 p. m. An Indian will be burned in a coffin as the feature attraction of the pep show prior to the football game with the University of Utah.

Stacks of wood are still being collected and deposited on the parking lot north of the Family Living Building to build the "biggest bonfire ever seen on this campus," according to Keith Price, show chairman.

Head Football Coach Harold Kopp will be on hand to help fan the flames of the bonfire and keep spirit running high among the Cougar supporters.

ENTERTAINMENT, besides the arson, will consist of Hawaiian dances and a girls trio.

Let's Burn That Indian

Stacks and stacks of wood are still needed for the bonfire for Thursday night's pep rally.

Any old weatherbeaten planks, lumber, boxes, and blanks are okay and the pep committee will haul it to the fire.

If YOU have some wood call FR 3-5563 or FR 4-0928 and leave your address. Someone will pick it up.

New varsity yell leaders, who will be seen by the studentbody for the first time at the rally, are Paul Lookinland, Bob and Dick Jensen, Phil Nolen, and Bob Ward.

Songleaders, who will also appear at the rally include Kim Nuth, Dick Donah, Lois Lockhead, Janice Zollinger, Sharon Benson and Gail Morrow.

VERLAND WHIPPLE, popular comedian on campus, will deliver a pre-mortem for the charred Indian, and the varsity majorettes will attempt to restore a jovial mood with a baton-twirling demonstration.

New Christensen, Pep Committee director, and Price have expressed their desire to see the entire studentbody turn out for this rally. Enthusiasm for the Utah game has been running high, and the students have this year expressed it and let the football team know they are behind it all.

Soph Workers Needed

Workers are needed on the committee for the Sophomore Loan Fund Ball, according to Sophomore class officers.

Sophomores interested in the committee work may contact Marcia Black at FR 3-5500, ext. 390, or Paul Flannery at FR 3-6557.

In Painter Headquarters Moved to Abandoned House

Brigham Young University studentbody poster room has moved to temporary quarters off-campus. Andrus, campus publicity, announced removal of office facilities to 244 E. 100 Street in Provo. poster-house should purchase their own supplies and then contact Greg Andrus, Provo at FR 4-0389. It will be available from 1 to 5 p. m. Monday through Friday.

Removal of the poster room from the Student Service Center was necessary to make office space available for the Executive Council, according to the Campus Publicity Committee.

Poster facilities will be moved permanently to the former Rainbow Gardens building upon completion of the new Provo High School Seminary Building. Provo High is currently conducting summer classes in the Rainbow Gardens building.

'Punishment' Promised At Friday Frosh Court

FRESHMAN COURT, "Frosh Frenzy," will be conducted Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the football stadium.

All freshmen who have received summons during freshman initiation are required to be in attendance. All other freshmen are invited to attend.

IN FORMER years the court was called "Senior Court" and was conducted entirely by seniors. This year, although the court is to be supervised by the senior class, only the trial will be conducted by the seniors. By the new program freshmen will administer punishment to their own classmates if found guilty.

Students may enter the football stadium by the gate at the top of the hill. The accused should bring their summons with them and sit in the accused stand. All others may sit in the honored guests' section.

FOR TRIAL one of the accused freshmen will be chosen to represent his class. He will be tried, and if found guilty by the court of seniors all freshmen who have received summons will be taken onto the football field. Here they will be divided into ten groups which will compete in a series of relays.

Winning team of the relays will administer punishment to the losing team by such methods as showering ice cold water, rotting tomatoes, and goose peas. Freshmen are urged to wear old clothes.

BACKGROUND music for the court will be played by Gus Shields' orchestra. The court will be conducted by Virgil Anderson, Alberta, Canada.

Following the court no hard feelings should remain, advises Mike Yoshino, senior class president. Freshmen will have been initiated into BYU and taught to feel a part of it.

Participants of the court session will form the "V" on the football field and everyone will be invited to join in singing the school song.

New Dance Band Organization Set

A new dance band is being organized on the Brigham Young University campus.

Students interested in auditioning for the group should bring instruments Thursday evening to the Social Hall.

Trumpet auditions will be from 7:30 and trombones will tryout at 9 p.m. in room 210.

Saxophone auditions are scheduled to begin at 7:30 and all rhythm instruments at 9 p.m. in room 220.

The band is being organized, according to Benny Knudsen, to play for studentbody dances and to work on Student Program Bureau shows.

Musicians interested in playing with the band, but who are unable to attend the auditions should contact Knudsen at FR 5 5347.

Rockette Dancers Schedule Auditions

Auditions are being held for girls desiring to join the Rockettes dancing group.

Tryouts will be Thursday from 5:15 to 6:15 p.m. in the East Lounge of the Social Hall.

Rockettes are a group of precision dancers who have traveled with the Student Program Bureau in shows.

Eligibility requirements state the girls must be between 5'4" and 5'7" in height and have tap dancing experience.

Soviets to Observe U.S. Elections

WASHINGTON, (INS)—Russia accepted today a U.S. invitation to send two or three observers to this country for a first-hand look at the American elections.

The State Department said the Soviet Union notified the U.S. Embassy in Moscow of its acceptance and promised to issue an equal number of American observers to watch the next elections to the Supreme Soviet.

The U.S. invitation was issued about two weeks ago. It went to four Soviet satellites—Czechoslovakia, Poland, Hungary and Romania—as well as Russia itself.

The satellite countries have

Mustache Wax is Back

Mustache wax, an item that hasn't been popular since Teddy Roosevelt left the White House, has gone to the heads of the college class.

One mustache-wax manufacturer, according to an article in Look Magazine, has traced a recent boom in the sales of his product to, of all places, college campuses.

The demand came not from the faculty hirsute, it turned out, but clean-shaven college boys.

Undergraduates, after adopting the crew cut, couldn't make their hair bristle, then someone remembered great grandpa and found that nothing works like

wax in stiffening reluctant ruffs not yet replied.

Although the detailed itinerary for the Russian observer has not yet been worked out State Department officials say that they will arrive in the U.S. about Oct. 21.

Tentative plans call for Russians to travel through Texas to Texas, along the coast and over the Mid-N winding up in New York for Election Day.

Arrangements also will be made for the Russians to see appearances of presidential candidates but they will not try to win them.

The Soviet Union has promised to notify the U.S. who will make the trip. American invitation made plain that the trip was no to be considered a state visit.

Pan-American Airways, at request of the U.S. government, has agreed to fly the Russian observers and any Soviet satellite representatives to the U.S. site of change.

Activities Planned By Square Dance Enthusiasts' Club

Enthusiasts in square dance circles are anxious are buzzing with news about plans for their club this year. It will meet Monday nights, 8:30 to 9:30 in the Social Hall.

The enthusiastic square dancers from their past experiences know that, for entertainment, moral, social, and fun, a good square dance group is the best, and people are now aware that it is fulfilling square dance circles.

One of these ideas will be put into practice by the club as they will learn the latest in dance and current trends or groups throughout the nation.

Another new idea is that the club will be committed on a dancing rather than a teaching level. This means prospective members are eligible if they have had previous experience. One quarter credit or its equivalent will suffice.

The club will entertain guest callers during the year. They are Earl Beck, Huddy Brenholt, Dale Farr, and Stevens. Alvin Heston, and club sponsor Mary Jensen.

Tune Trends

Range From Folk to Jazz

by Nadine Hall

From the "rock and roll" antics of Elvis Presley to the dynamic ballads of Harry Belafonte are the trends of popular music today.

Vying for top spot on the parade of hits are "Don't Be Cruel" by Presley, Eddie Heywood's "Canadian Sunset" and "Soft Summer Breeze," and "My Prayer" rendered by The Platters.

Along the album line the Four Freshmen have just released "Freshman Favorites" which include such classics as "In This Whole Wide World," "Charmaine," and "The Day Ain't Long Enough."

Harry Belafonte's "Calypso" and "Belafonte" are rated as two of the best selling albums of the year. Harry imports a fresh sense of the reality and truth of our legends with his ballads "Swing," "Noah," and "Jamaica Inn."

"Jazz Goes to College" by Dave Brubeck is a top album in student's collections, and the title shows all jazz is popular at the University.

If you like slow, dreamy music, the "Velvet Carpet" by George Shearing would satisfy your tastes. Shearing favorites, "September Song," "Autumn Leaves," and "Foggy Day," have that pianistic mastery that Shearing displays.

"Something Cool" by June Christy rates "real cool" on the college campus. June gives forth with her throaty appeal of "I Should Care," "Midnight Sun," and "I'll Take Romance." In this grouping of records:

Field General Named As Outstanding Back

Carroll Johnston, Brigham Young University quarterback, has gained this week's "Back of the Week" honors for his play in the Cougar contests so far this season.

A junior from Durango, Colo., Johnston has earned his football experience the hard way under pressure on the losing 1955 Cat bowl team.

He is considered by many as a good field general and passer, and is one of BYU's better punters.

In the Fresno State game a pass from Johnston to end Tom Clark scored the first Cougar touchdown of the 1956 season, the play going for a total of 70 yards.

Saturday night at Fort Collins he again turned in a good performance (as BYU turned in its best offensive display of the season).

Johnston will see plenty of action Friday night when the University of Utah comes to Cougarville to try for its second conference win.

Nineteen years old, Johnston stands 5'10" tall, and tips the scales at 175 pounds. He is majoring in physical education.

That's Rich

by Rich Hall

FRIDAY NIGHT University of Utah will send the team tonight by many to take the Skyline crown this year to Provo. Since Utah managed to hold once mighty UCLA to 13 points two weekends ago, and after their impressive victory over Montana last weekend, little chance is given to Brigham Young University as far as this year's meeting between the schools is concerned.

And yet, this is a game where past performances don't count one bit. BYU has managed to triumph only once in the series of games with the Utes, that a 127 victory in 1942, but have played to four draws, and many times have gone into a Utah game several touchdown underdogs and lost by only one to seven points.

THIS YEAR, as before, past performances will make no difference. The Cougars will be playing to win. They will be the underdog, but in a way we are glad of that. Knowing they are picked to lose, the Cats will be going out on the field ready to fight all the way, realizing that is the only way they can stay in the ball game.

Memories of games in the immediate past come to mind at this point; games where the Redskins were supposed to run wild over the Brigham Young team and when the final gun went off were happy to leave the field with a point separation of one touchdown or less.

WHAT ABOUT the televised Thanksgiving day game back in 1953. Picked as the ABC "Game of the Week," that contest was televised nationally. Most people felt that the Cougars were on their way to coast to coast humiliation, supposedly not having a chance to stay close to the Utes. But when the game was over the scoreboard read Utah 53, Brigham Young 32.

The Cats had risen from the ashes of a mediocre season the year before, and a losing one in '53 to nearly pull the upset of the week. A bad pass from center was the joker that stopped them.

And in 1951, when a highly favored Utah squad eked out a 7-6 victory from a BYU team that hadn't believed it was beaten before it started and refused to go out on the field and play dead.

AND WHAT OF the 28-28 tie in 1950, a game that many people consider one of the Cougars' finest football hours. Or the 12-7 game in 1954, with Cats deep in Utah territory at the final gun.

This year there is a spirit on the Cougar squad that has been lacking for some time. A terrific will to win has made itself evident. In situations where ballplayers could understandably become tired and discouraged the Cats have continued to play hard football, doing the best they could up to the final gun, not letting up at all.

UTAH WILL be coming to Provo highly favored to win. The Cougars are improved, but supposedly not enough to have much of a chance against the Redskins. But the new BYU spirit will be there, resting on a fighting football squad that is not planning on going out on the field and giving the game away.

Many people are predicting a Ute victory by this many or that many points. We don't try to kid ourselves that we can pick out a score that will even come close to what the final one will be.

So we won't try to say what the score will be. All we will say is this: There will be sixty minutes of real football played at the Cougar stadium Friday night. And we won't be terribly surprised if the Cougars win. We are long overdue a victory in the Utah series.

Cougars On Short End Of Series With Utah

A FOOTBALL rivalry which dates back to 1922 will be resumed Friday night when Brigham Young University hosts the University of Utah at the Cougar Stadium.

Utah is a heavy favorite to hand the Cougars their first league setback. Last week-end, while Utah was handling Montana 26-6, BYU and Colorado A&M fought to a scoreless tie at Fort Collins.

IN PRE-SEASON play Denver, Wyoming, Utah State, and Utah were ranked as the top contenders for the Skyline title. However, Denver and Utah State dropped their opening conference games last week-end, leaving only Wyoming and Utah undented in Skyline play, and either one of those teams could win the conference crown.

The Utah-BYU rivalry is one of the most lopsided in the nation, as BYU has won only one contest in the 31-game series.

The lone Cougar victory came in 1942 when the Cats squeaked past the Redskins, 12-7.

UTAH'S biggest win over the Brigham came in their series opener, when the Utes scored a 49-0 victory. Altogether Utah has won 26 games, BYU 1, and four have ended in ties.

However, since 1950, BYU and Utah have played some thrilling games. The 1950 contest saw the Cougars and Redskins battle to a 28-28 tie. The next season Utah eked out a 7-6 victory.

The 1952 game saw the Utes rack up a 34-6 victory. In 1953, before a national television audience, Utah outlasted BYU in a thrilling 33-32 contest. In 1954 Utah won 12-7.
